

Summer Homework for Third Grade

Read The Hundred Dresses by Eleanor Estes. You can order a copy at a bookstore or get a used copy online through Amazon.com for a small amount of money.

Next, write a two paragraph book report about the book. The 1st paragraph should be a summary of the book. The last paragraph should be your opinion of the book--did you like it or not? Would you recommend it to other people?

Then write down 10 ways you will make our classroom a positive and happy place for everyone. How will you make new students feel welcome? How will you make sure no one is left out or excluded? Talk it over with your family and get some good ideas. I will ask you to share your ideas the first day of school.

Finally, draw a picture that is inspired by the book. Make it as detailed as possible and color it with crayons or colored pencils. Your book report and your picture will be displayed on the bulletin board, so you will want to make them your neatest and nicest work.

Make sure to have a lot of fun with your family this summer!!!
